

Don't miss this year's family-friendly pantomime at Everyman Theatre in Cheltenham: Dick Whittington is in town for performances throughout December and until January 12. With his faithful friend Tommy the Cat, Dick encounters many adventures as he makes his way to the city where the streets are 'paved with gold'. He must defeat the evil King Rat, find his fortune and become Lord Mayor of London. A festive feast for all age-groups! To book tickets, call 01242 572573 or book online at www.everymantheatre.org.uk

This gorgeous sheepskin gilet, with toggle fastener, is the perfect winter warmer for a two to three year-old. It's priced at £39.00 and can be found in the children's section at Lapstone, just outside Chipping Campden. Lapstone: 01386 841611 or visit www.lapstone.net

To mark its 25th anniversary, Next has recently launched its own signature range for babies and children. The collection features some great separates for both girls and boys – classic styles but with a distinct nod to the Next 'look'. Available at Next stores or online at www.next.co.uk

We love the children's fabric ranges by Harlequin. Shown here are designs from the Far Away collection: the curtains are in 'Small World' and the cube is upholstered in 'Little Gems'. Both fabrics are priced at £23.00 a metre. The Harlequin children's collections are stocked at The Winnens Furnishing Company: 01242 521661 / www.winnens.co.uk

Beasty Bags makes a fun and practical range of giant beanbags – including this very huggable hippo. Each design measures 190cm x 90cm when lying flat and comes in cotton, faux leather, faux suede or weatherproof fabric. The range also includes a lion, a rhino and an elephant, so you can choose just one animal or go all-out and assemble a mini-zoo. Prices range from £150 to £250. For more details, visit www.beastybags.co.uk

You'll find a fun and colourful range of items for children and babies at the new Cath Kidston shop in Cheltenham. It includes everything from clothing, toys and school kit to children's bedding, fabrics and wallpapers. Cath Kidston: 01242 245912 / www.cathkidston.co.uk
